WELCOME TO THIS MONTH'S NEWSLETTER:

Hi all. Here we are at the end of our season and facing a great summer. July 1st is of course a big day for us as this is when we make a big impact on the city folks, and visitors from other places... We had a fairly successful season and we're facing September with a few new faces in the Executive and Directors – welcome aboard to all.

Now on with the Newsletter.

Steve.

ANNOUNCEMENTS: Sandi and group

- Janessa have given birth to another baby girl – June 5th, 2017.
- We need a volunteer to organize the year-end BBQ – No response – tabled until next years! (By show of hands in crowd.)

ART IN THE PARK: All

- Sales table is to be run by Steve Edgar and Steve Quinny (½ day am) Dave Smith (½ day pm).
- List going around the room for further volunteers and list their specialty.

REQUESTS FOR ASSISTANCE: Gary Harker

- Gary reminded us of the two presentations asking for assistance in their endeavors;
  - ** RIH – plaques for presentation, and eating off, with logos, etc., burned into them. Gary informed the group that he and others in the Guild have been diligently working on these plaques and they have 250 made of a requested 280.... Still going on.
  - ** Heart & Stroke Assn – Gary told the group that they were in the process of getting designs and sizes, etc., so they can start work on their easels they requested.

DEMO – Stu Rockwood – Techniques for inlay bows in wood.

- Great demo – showing how Stu does his inlays of bow-ties into his wood projects... Took a bit of time as this is very fine work, but results were excellent.

Sample

Laying out bow-tie

Fine finish with chisel

Matching hole cut into board

Router roughs-out hole

Fitted & glued into finished hole

Just needs planing flush
