CONSTITUTION & BYLAW CHANGES: Carl Ottosen

- In accordance with previous meeting notice given to implement changes and improvements to our Constitution and Bylaws and Rules....
We are now at the point where we need to handle these changes, and improvements to our system of governance.

We, the Committee, now move these motions to improve our Governance:

i) Article III - GOVERNANCE:

- ii) By striking out three (3) members “at large”, and inserting “minimum of three (3) members”
- iii) By striking out three (3) other directors “at large” and inserting “minimum three (3) other directors”.
- viii) By striking out three (3) directors “at large” and inserting minimum three (3) directors.
- ix) By striking out three (3) directors “at large” and inserting minimum three (3) directors.

ii) ARTICLE IV – MEMBERSHIP: (This article was held in abeyance.)

- vi) That if we have a long-term, contributing member who achieves 90 years of age, and is still interested in woodwork and the Guild, should have an honorary membership bestowed on him/her by the Guild.

AMMENDMENTS TO; BY-LAWS OF THE KAMLOOPS WOOD WORKERS GUILD:

Section 1: Committees;

- iv) Special Events and New Projects Committee; must present membership with an outline of costs to the Guild before approval is given to participate in this event or project.
