WELCOME TO THIS MONTH'S NEWSLETTER:

Hello everyone, here we are in May, and getting ready to attend the Windsor Plywood Demo Day on the 27th of this month starting at 9:00am or so... Please come and volunteer, or at least come by and have a visit with the volunteers who are there... We're scheduled to be there until about 3:00pm and then home we go.

Enjoy the newsletter.
Steve

KAMLOOPS WOODWORKERS GUILD MONTHLY NEWSLETTER

www.kwwg.net

- Dave G. gave a “notice” that we should be now talking, and acting on getting our Guild out to the different Christmas Fairs that happen in Nov. and Dec. It would publicize us and show people what we do, and could generate a bit of money for us as well.
- Anne R. affirmed that now is the time to start planning for the fall events.
- Dave G. is willing to start the work as long as he has the backing and help of all the interested members of this Guild.

SHOW & TELL:

- Carl O. – home made “hackle pliers” for his fishing hobby.

- Nick S. – Side table that he needed for his place, and a funerary urn in the bottom. Beautiful.

DEMO – BETH G. – NEW WOOD FINISHES THAT ARE ENVIRONMENT FRIENDLY.

- Beth had a selection of finishes, for different applications, and all made of organic contents.
- Showed boards with different uses of the finishes and impressed upon the group that there is NO SANDING required...
