

KAMLOOPS WOODWORKERS GUILD NEWSLETTER

www.kwwg.net

Feb. 15 2026

Welcome to the February Newsletter that we place here every month we hold meetings (July & August we're off).

1) OLD BUSINESS:

- Men's Shed – has there been any discussion of the Guild moving in?
 - Warren J. said there'd been no real discussion, though a member had asked about it. The ball is in the Guild's court
 - Dave G. noted we should ensure it's understood we want to use the space to have courses, and confirm liability
 - Jason noted coordination is needed to ensure Men's Shed work doesn't conflict with a Guild meeting
- Terry S. will lead a work bee in mid-March
 - Tentatively planned for March 18th evening
 - Terry has prepared for assembly:
 - 5 log truck kits
 - 15 long tanker kits
 - 25 short 2-axle tanker kits
 - 10 dogs
 - Backup location TBD if Men's Shed is busy with projects
- Steve E and Chris contacted Wilf about the website
 - Wilf (IdeaLever) add the ability to do the updates Christ wants to do for $50
 - Steve E made motion to spend the $50 to add this feature, Nick S seconded, motion passed
- Judy S will message Vic to get the Facebook password

2) NEW BUSINESS:

- Please continue to buy 50/50 as it helps the guild stay in the positive
- Dave G received a call from a lady who knew a native carver who passed away
 - Mainly wanted all his stuff to go to a good home
 - Items will be put up on marketplace or similar
- Homer H. will figure out what needs to happen for Art in the Park
- Nick S. mentioned it may be time to think about Christmas sales / vcraft fairs as well
 - Rob K. will look into Christmas Market
- Steve E. got a call from Boundary Wood Guild in Grand Forks
 - They were generally wondering how we make money
 - Said he'll float the idea of our Guilds associating together at their next board meeting

3) SHOW & TELL:

- Carl O. – turned ornaments with flies attached

- Kelly – cars and trucks for grandkid
